Numb. 1942

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 26 to Monday June 30, 1684.

From the Imperial Camp near Gran, June 20.

HAving passed the Danube the 14th and 15th Instant, the 16th our Horse invested Vicegrad, situate on the side of the Danube, a place heretofore so considerable, that the Kings of Hungary did very often reside there; and that day in the Evening we attacked the Town and took it; and the next day the Turks that were in the Castle Capitulated, and marched out 740 men with their Arms and Baggage. We had left our Baggage under the Cannon of Gran, which the Turks having notice of, they drew their Troops out of Alba Regalis, Zygeth, and other neighboring places, and forming a body of 6000 men, advanced towards Gran, and fell with great fury upon the Troops that guarded our Baggage; our men were at first in some disorder, and Colonel Halloweil who commanded them, charging the Enemy with great bravery, was killed upon the place, and Count Rabata Captain of Horse, was taken prisoner; but the Imperialists quickly recovered themselves, and engaged the Enemy so vigorously, that after a sharp fight, they were forced to retire in much confusion, having lost above 600 men, and one of their principal Commanders being taken prisoner; Count Rabata, whom they were carrying away, was released out of their hands; The Imperialists took 4 Standards and lost in this action about 250 men. This day part of the Army repassed the Danube near Gran, and to morrow the Duke of Lorrain will follow with the rest, his Highness having resolved to attack Novigrad.

Vienna, June 22. The 18th Instant the Prince of Lubomirski passed the Waag near Trenchin with between 3 and 4000 Poles, and hath it's believed, by this time joyned the Imperial Army. The Letters from Gran give us an account that the Imperialists had taken Vicegrad, and that they were repassing the Danube in order to attack Novigrad, his Highness thinking it necessary to make himself Master of all the Posts which the Turks have between Gran and Buda before He undertake the Siege of this last place, that so the Convoys may come to the Army without any disturbance. From Gratz they write, that Count Leslie was preparing to take the Field with the Troops of Croatia, and the German Regiments that have Wintered in Stiria.

Lintz, June 21. The last Letters from Hungary informed us, that the Imperial Army consisting in 24000 Foot and 10000 Horse, had passed the Danube at Gran, and was marched towards Vicegrad; and that the Duke of Lorrain had put a Garison into Vaccia, which the Turks had abandoned. The news we had that the Imperialists had defeated a body of 16000 Turks that were marching with a great Convoy to Newheusel, proves a mistake. The Negotiation that was managing with Count Teckeley, is quite broken off, it sufficiently appearing that he is resolved to keep to his Engagements with the Turks, and that the Overtures he hath made at the Emperor's Court, have been only to amuse them and gain time.

Lintz, June 24. Two days since arrived here an Express with Letters from the Duke of Lorrain, wherein he gives the Emperor an account, that being advanced with the Imperial Army to Vicegrad, he caused some of his Troops to post themselves upon the Hill, on which stands the Castle, within Musquet shot of the Ditch of the said Castle, and with great pains and difficulty raised a Battery there of several pieces of Cannon and Mortar-pieces; That in the Evening 2000 Foot commanded by the Prince of Neubourg and the Baron de Becke, assaulted the Town, and made themselves Masters of it, the Turks retiring into the Castle, which the Imperialists attacked with their Cannon and Bombs, and did so great execution with them, that the 17th the Enemy began to Capitulate, and desired to march out with their Arms and Baggage, which the Duke of Lorrain granted them; and that on the 19th the Garison marched out, consisting of 700 fighting men. While the Imperial Army was before Vicegrad, the Turks of Alba Regalis, Zygeth, and other neighboring places, fell upon their Baggage which they had left near Gran, where Major General Halloweil had the command, and some of his Troops giving way, he was surrounded by the Enemy and killed; but the Regiment of Rabata stood alone the shock of the Turks, though they were 6000 strong, and made a great slaughter of them, and the other Troops recovering out of the disorder they were at first in, and coming to their assistance, they put the Enemy to flight, and pursued them a great way; The Turks lost 6 or 700 men, and the Imperialists about 200, and the Baron Lori is either killed or taken prisoner; Count Rabata, Captain of Horse, was likewise taken, and the Turks had tied him to the Tail of one of their Horses, but he was released in the pursuit. The 20th and 21. the Imperial Army repassed the Danube below Gran, the Duke of Lorrain having resolved to attack Novigrad and afterwards Pest. The Eldest Prince of Neubourg was shot through his Hat with a Musquet-bullet before Vicegrad; and his Brother through his Sleeve. The Gallies and other small Vessels commanded by the Count de Vecchi, are by this time arrived at Gran.

Cologne, June 30. Our Elector continues at Bonn; but the Bishop of Strasburgh, and the French, Danish, and Brandenburgh Ministers are at Breuil, about a League from hence; The Flying Bridge, which was built by order of our Elector in the Lower Dioceſs, being finished, is brought to Zons, near which place his Electoral Highness's Troops that have had their Quarters in the Lower Dioceſs, are to draw together; and we are told that 8000 men are on their march from the Bishoprick of Munster to joyn them. We are likewise making a Flying Bridge here for the Service of the Troops of our Elector. We have advice that the Elector of Bavaria hath a body of 15000 men together near Augsbourg; and that 10000 Imperialists commanded by Major General Stadell, are marching to joyn them.

Hamburg, June 30. The King of Denmarke is still at Itzeboe. Here is a report that the Swedish Fleet is at Sea, consisting in 24 Ships.

Brussels, July 4. On Sunday the Marquis de Grana